

WATCHES.

Our stock of watches speaks eloquently of good things, and there are many people whose happy experiences confirm the reliability and worth of them

Our success as watch sellers has not been merely fortuitous, but is the result of the unwavering integrity and knowledge gained by long years of study. Every watch we sell is a guaranteed time keeper.

Thus you have more reason to consider this store as an object worthy your seeking.

Phelps county and Dawson county will soon vote on $100,000 bonds for new court houses. Lincoln county, which has a greater assessed value than either of the above counties, will build a new court house when the present inadequate structure tumbles down, which it is liable to do during some strong wind, as the foundation is badly eaten by alkali.

School children, both boys and girls, can be fitted out from head to foot at The Leader.

Plans for the North Platte federal building are now being drawn in the architect's office in Washington. It is expected that proposals for its construction will be asked this winter and work begin next spring or summer. It has been hinted that the appropriation of $100,000 will not be sufficient to erect the building needed, and an additional appropriation will be made.

Car Movement.

During the month of August 49,682 cars passed through the local yards, exclusive of passenger cars, as compared with 46,985 in August 1908, an increase of 2,697 cars. This is certainly a very respectable showing, and evidence of the resumption of freight traffic on the overland route, "the safe road to travel."

Drops Dead While at Work.

William Harris, employed in the laborer's gang at the Union Pacific shops, dropped dead about ten o'clock this morning while at work. He was engaged in flushing a sewer in the rear of the shops with a rubber hose. He had crawled out of the manhole, and was immediately taken with a slight convulsion. A fellow laborer caught hold of him to give him support, and at that instant he gave a last gasp.

Harris was an unmarried man about fifty years of age and lived with his mother on west Seventh street. Prior to taking employment with the company he worked with the street gang. He is a brother of "Teeter" Harris.
